Tax File Number Note

Under the First Home Savers Accounts Act 2008, we are authorised to collect your tax file number and other information about your First Home Saver Account (FHSA). Although you are not obliged to provide your tax file number, we can not open an FHSA for you without it. We can only use your tax file number for lawful purposes. We are authorised to, and will, disclose your tax file number and other information to the Commissioner of Taxation. If you later transfer the balance of your account to a super fund or to another provider, your tax file number must also be disclosed to that fund or provider.

! You won't be able to open an account if you don't provide your tax file number.

I declare that: (check (✓) boxes).

I have read and understand the eligibility conditions for FHSA and that I am eligible to open an FHSA.

I have never owned or jointly owned a dwelling that has been my main residence in Australia or Norfolk Island.

and one of the following applies:

I have never held another FHSA or

I currently have an FHSA but I want the balance of my existing FHSA transferred to the new FHSA I am now opening. (If so, complete the First Home Saver Transfer form).

I have held an FHSA which was closed for one of the following reasons:

- The purchase of a dwelling that was to become my main residence did not eventuate and I am opening this new FHSA within six months of closing the previous FHSA.
- I closed the FHSA within the cooling-off period and I am now opening this new FHSA.

Mandatory Field

I acknowledge that I have read the Product Disclosure Statement for the First Home Saver Account and understand that minimum contributions are required over a period in order for me to withdraw the funds to purchase my first home.
